THOUGHT IT WAS OVER? NOPE!

*Jacob R. Klein, the author of Stories of the Old Testament, Stories of the Old Testament: Savior Needed, and King of Kings, Rebel of Rebels: The Savior's Story, is back with the story of the apostles in the book of Acts, which takes place after their master Jesus' resurrection. You will see the waiting and experiences the apostles went through before being empowered by the Holy Spirit in this thoughtful and profound book. Follow as they encounter adversities in the early stages of the church and the fortitude Stephen showed just before his faith in Jesus would cost him his life. Author Jacob R. Klein produces a brilliant work that looks backward at the origins of backward at the origins of the Christian church, offering fresh insights. The stories speak volumes about the character of the early believers and the trials that they endured.*

Using brilliant studying based on what he has learned after King of Kings, Rebel of Rebels: The Savior's Story, along with vibrant analogies, Jacob R. Klein will take you on an odyssey where you will see with great interest the inner struggle of Saul on his journey leading to Damascus, where his life is forever altered. It is guaranteed to make an indelible impression on the reader. It is a true and fascinating account of the work of the Holy Spirit in the lives of ordinary people, enabling them to do extraordinary things. You will be inspired by the events leading to the first Gentile convert, be amazed by Peter's miraculous escape from being imprisoned by a descendant of Herod the Great, be informed by the inspiration behind Saul changing his name to Paul, feel the tension over the issues that needed to be addressed at the Jerusalem council, enjoy the missionary journeys leading to Rome, and so much more. This book is skillfully written and well-crafted. It is a must-read.

Apostles Carrying the Story

Thought it was over? Nope!

EXCERPT

"However, the closer Saul got to Damascus, the more he had time to ponder. . . . Why were they so committed to following a man who died on a cross that they were willing to risk their own lives for that particular cause?"
