Everything you need to host an engaging book club for Summer Fruit

Book Club Facilitator's Guide for Summer Fruit

Session Prep

- Read the book club summary aloud to open the discussion.
- Print or share the discussion questions with the group in advance or at the meeting.
- Create atmosphere: dim lighting, forest-themed visuals, or even wolf howls softly in the background can set a moody, immersive tone.

Suggested Agenda (60–90 minutes)

- 5–10 min – Welcome and Introductions
 - Ask each participant to share their name and whether they'd rather live alone in the woods or in a big city—and why.
- 10–15 min – First Impressions Round
 - Open the floor: “What were your general feelings after finishing Summer Fruit?”
- 30–45 min – Guided Discussion
 - Use 6–8 discussion questions. Mix between lighter and deeper topics. Let conversation flow but bring it back if it goes too far off-topic.
- 15–20 min – Thematic Reflection or Activity
 - Choose one:
 - Have participants write down their “spirit animal” and explain why it fits them.
 - Play a short audio clip of wolf howls or forest rain and ask: “What emotions does this sound stir after reading the book?”
- 5–10 min – Wrap-Up and Takeaway
 - Ask: “What will stay with you from Summer Fruit?” or “Which character would you like to check in on five years from now?”

Facilitator Tips

- Use open-ended questions to invite diverse interpretations.
 - Respect emotional topics—this novel touches on grief, trauma, and abuse.
 - Allow moments of silence. The book invites introspection.
