There is a lot to see out there in our great country. Also in other countries. Some not good, but most are. The more good folks travel, the better for us all. Train depots can be large and noisy or small and quiet. See for oneself.

About the Author, Randy Schreifels

My name is Randy Schreifels. I was born and still live in St. Cloud MN. I am now a Senior Citizen. I am retired. I published a few book mostly on travel experiences. I made very little royalties now, but I hope that will change. I love traveling when it is possible.
